Adaland to Display Donated Items

Adaland Mansion was thrilled to receive surprise donations of clothing and photographs owned by the late Ira B. Robinson, a WV Supreme Court of Appeals Judge.

The family of Ira Robinson's second wife, Loretta Malone, graciously donated two hats, one of his judge's robes, and a child's bracelet belonging to Ada Mae. These objects will be displayed at the house in the 2023-2024 season. Robinson owned the historic site from 1920-1950. It is Robinson who named the house, after his first wife Ada and daughter Ada Mae.

Donated Items from Loretta Malone, including a top hat, bowler hat, photographs, and court robes.

Tag Sale Donations

We are accepting Tag Sale donations all summer. With extra storage room we can take your donation anytime. Please think of Adaland when spring cleaning. Donations of antiques, furniture, pictures, glassware are welcome. Local pickup is available, call 304-457-1587

Giftshop & Carriage House Repairs

Adaland is asking for donations for the repairs needed at the gift shop and carriage house. For the safety of our staff and guests we are replacing the bathroom upstairs of the gift shop and the fire escape off the back of the Carriage House. Both are damaged and rotting and will need replaced.
